Event/Date: Three Celebrity Guest Readers at Neill Public Library Beginning July 5th

Neill Public Library's Summer Reading Program continues the week of July 5th, with three celebrity online guest readers. Nathan Weller, City Council Member for Ward 2 kicks off the week on Monday, July 5, followed by Meg Gollnick, Vice President of the Pullman Schools Pantry Program on Tuesday, July 6, and Kris Boreen, member of the Neill Public Library Board of Trustees on Thursday, July 8th. Online storytimes will be posted to the City's YouTube channel at <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCjiqRIZd7WhoNaCLBN8hgSg> at 10am.

For this week's Activity Challenge, we encourage youth to write their own stories! Draw a series of pictures or write a story. Email completed stories to Ms. Rachael at rachael.ritter@neill-lib.org and earn a raffle ticket for the prize drawing on Friday, July 9th.

Grab & Go Activity Bags for youth of all ages will resume on Monday, July 12th, when we begin Savanna Animal week.

There is still time to register online at <https://neill-lib.beanstack.org>. This year's Summer Reading Program is generously funded by Friends of Neill Public Library.
